The cases of Mr Bowring & Mr Rajaratna mudda are were different from that of Mr Subbarow. The present Schedule B consists mainly of officers who were formerly known as 'Extra' assistant Commrs.
& it was in regard to their inclusion in the Civil Service that the G.O. of 2nd April 07 was passed. Paras 2 & 3 of the order explain the reasons for the action taken.
Under the old system 'Extra' assistant Commrs. would not have been eligible for the places of Senior Assistant Commrs.

Mr Subbarow is by all accounts an officer of ability & character well above the average & there would be no

Submitted to His Highness.

11 This is a memorial from Mr. N. Subba Rao B.A., Sub-Division Officer, Nanjangud, bringing to notice that his claims for promotion to the Senior Assistant Commissioner grade, have been overlooked, evidently on the ground that he had not passed the Civil Examination, and requesting that he may either be exempted from passing the examination, or if Government be not prepared to make an exemption, he may be transferred from the Revenue Department and appointed Superintendent, Central Jail, Bangalore, or as Muzrai Superintendent.

12 2. The representation was referred to the Council with my opinion that Mr. Subba Rao may be exempted from passing the Civil Examination, Parts I and II. Mr. Subba Rao is a very capable officer whom the Revenue Department can ill spare. He would do well as a Muzrai Superintendent. He would do well also but would be too good as Superintendent of a Jail.

13 3. Both the Councillors agree with me.

The question what effect this exemption will have on promotions already given may have to be considered. Mr. Jagar Subba Rao has under the application of existing rules been superseded by two officers Mr. D. M. Karasimja Rao and Mr. P. G. D'Souza who are both acting in 'long vacancies' the former vice Mr. Karasimja Deyar appointed to act as Registrar of Cooperative Credit Societies and the latter vice Mr. K. Krishna Rao acting as Dy. Commr of the Mysore St. The former has already earned his first increment also. If Mr. Subba Rao had not been exempted but had qualified himself from a date subsequent to that on which promotions had already been given, by passing the examination, his passing the examination subsequently would not have affected those promotions and presumably a similar principle

~~and~~ This may perhaps be made clear by the addition of the last sentence

also be pointed out here that there is just now a temporary

SIR,

I have the honor to forward herewith, a Memorial from Mr. N. Subba Rao, Sub Division Officer of Nanjangud, in the matter of his being exempted from passing the Civil Examination, received with the Mysore District Deputy Commissioner's letter No.921 dated the 15/17th April 1912, (a copy of which is herein enclosed) for favourable consideration of Government, for the reasons given in the Deputy Commissioner's letter and Mr. Subba Rao's memorial which I venture to think ^{are} quite acceptable.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Officiating Revenue Commissioner.

Letter No.921 dated 15th April 1912 from the Deputy Commissioner of the Mysore District, to the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore.

I have the honor to forward herewith a memorial submitted by Mr. N. Subba Rao, Assistant Commissioner, in charge of the Nanjangud Sub Division, for your favourable recommendation. It is particularly hard upon an old and tried Officer such as Mr. Subba Rao to be called upon to pass any examination at this late period of his service.

I have had opportunities of knowing Mr. Subba Rao's work and can confidently say that I have always found him a very capable and conscientious officer and I should consider his removal to other offices a serious loss to the Revenue Department.

In these circumstances it is not too much to expect that Government may be pleased to show him the same indulgent consideration as in the case of other officers as regards exemption from passing the Civil examination and assure to him his proper place and position in the service.

Sir,

I regret to state that in the recent promotions made to the Grade of Senior Assistants, my claims for promotion have been overlooked, evidently on the ground that I have not passed the Civil Examinations. If the Government had insisted upon my passing the Examination when they of their own accord transferred me to the Revenue Line from the Police Department in 1906, there would have been no difficulty; but to ask me to pass the Examination now at my age which is 53 years and service which is 28 years is very hard. Since my transfer to the Revenue line, I have been made to work in important Sub Divisions such as Sagar, Davangere, French Rocks and Nanjangud and I am not aware of any instance in which I have fallen short of expectations. Supersession is more a punishment than anything else and how I deserve this in spite of long and unblemished service of 28 years I cannot understand.

In the cases of Messrs: Bowring and Rajaratna Moodaliar exceptions have been made in that they were promoted as Senior Assistants in spite of their not having passed all the Tests.

I am one of the very few Officers of the Nagar Mahal in service, now. In view of the meritorious service rendered by my ancestors I was started in service as a Revenue Probationer in 1888 and since then I have worked in various capacities such as Amildar, Superintendent of Police, Assistant to the Inspector-General of Police and Sub Division Officer and all along I have worked conscientiously and have earned recognition from Government from time to time.

In these circumstances I pray that the Government may be moved to re-consider my case and make me an exception as in the cases of Messrs: Bowring and Rajaratna Moodaliar. If the Government be not prepared to make an exception, I beg that they may be pleased to transfer me from the Revenue Department and confer on me the Superintendent's place of the Central Jail, Bangalore, or the post of Muzrai Superintendent which are both vacant now.

I have the honour to be

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
